Dear Friends,

This is an urgent prayer update:

In our September newsletter we mentioned that we are preparing for weekly worship services to start in October. This coming Sunday, Oct 30, we are going to start!

After all the preparations and first tries with our sofa-services this is a real exciting next step for us. By God's grace all open questions, especially regarding the space, are resolved: We found a great, street-level location in a complex that is very centrally located, well known in

Flyer for the first four services our neighborhood and a center for art and entertainment. The space is not expensive and we are starting to rent it temporarily in the beginning. This is an amazing answer to prayer. Thanks to our Provider and thanks to you for praying with us!

We are all busy with preparations for Sunday. And even a couple of our seeking friends are involved in getting everything together for the first service.

Please pray with us...

...for many people to attend our first service and the following ones.

...for our final preparations and for calmness and order on Sunday morning with the set up and clean up.

...for great fellowship and a real sense of community also after the service when we go out for a brunch.

...for my sermon on John 2, The Wedding in Cana.

Also, please note that we restructured our web site. Up-to-date information for our friends, partners and supporters are now available under

At www.berlinprojekt.org you will find our regular church website in German ONLY, with NO direct link to the partner pages.

Many greetings,
Christian and Kosta
