Dear Friends:

What do you think of when you hear the word, “adoption”? Someone “giving away” their baby? A family who might not have children if it wasn’t for the sacrifice of another or a mom who doesn’t love her child enough to “keep” it? Adoption is a wonderful, life-giving plan for a child who might otherwise become a helpless victim to abortion. Look at it as a win-win-win situation. A loving couple receives the desire of their heart, a mom knows her child will be loved forever and the baby lives. What a wonderful plan of God!

After nine years of working with pregnant women and teens, I’m working to support a mom who is making an adoption plan. It’s heart-wrenching to see her struggle with what she knows is best for this baby. I’m privileged to walk alongside of her to encourage her that her plan is the most loving option for her and this baby. She is courageous in her pain and I know God will reward her. As I walk alongside of her over the next couple of months, I pray she will accept the One who can walk with her forever.

Christ’s Richest Blessings to you all!
